WILLIAM BEATTY
Judge nominee

Madison County Circuit Judge William L. Beatty, 53, of Granite City, was nominated by U.S. Senator Adlai Stevenson III of Illinois Tuesday to fill a newly-created federal judgeship in Southern Illinois.

The nomination initiates the federal screening process which involves the Justice Department, the American Bar Association, and ultimately the Senate Judiciary Committee and the full Senate, Beatty explained.

"I'd say I am on first base, running for second," the judge said. Beatty, who has been a circuit judge 10 years, the last two in Granite City, said he wrote to Sen. Stevenson about one year ago, when he first heard the redistricting of the federal court system would create an additional judgeship for Southern Illinois.

Since that time, he has been screened by a state Bar committee of 23 top attorneys and by several federal sources, and has submitted a great deal of documentation on his qualifications and experience, all leading to an interview with Sen. Stevenson in Chicago three weeks ago.

"That was the first time I ever met Sen. Stevenson," Beatty said. Late last week, the senator called Beatty and informed him he had been selected from among about 24 applicants to receive the nomination, but asked him not to make the news public.

Tuesday morning, Beatty was notified by Stevenson's press secretary that the nomination was being announced. If President Jimmy Carter accepts the nomination, the president will submit the appointment to the Senate for approval.

If Beatty is approved, he will be assigned a lifetime U.S. District judgeship in the Southern District of Illinois. Chief Judge James Foreman will assign where he will work in the district.

"Local boy makes good" has often been associated with such individuals as Robert L. Gibson, and the Granite Cityan soon is expected to achieve a new honor—election as president of the Illinois AFL-CIO.

Secretary-Treasurer of the statewide organization of the American Federation of Labor-Congress of Industrial Organizations, Gibson is expected to be elected to the presidency May 18 at an executive board meeting.

Stanley J. Johnson, 72, longtime Illinois AFL-CIO president, announced retirement plans this week. All who have commented predict Gibson will be elected to the top office. To replace him as secretary-treasurer, however, some have indicated they would prefer to see one of the contenders, State Rep. Thomas Ranshaw, McHenry Democrat, remain in the Illinois legislature.

Gibson was active in the Democratic Party here for many years. He became active in the United Steelworkers of America as a Granite City Steel employee, and then moved rapidly through the union ranks to attain the statewide AFL-CIO secretary-treasurer position. He commuted from here for awhile but then moved to Chicago to be nearer his office.

Gibson is the son of the late Glenn Gibson. His mother, Mrs. Viola Gibson, resides at 2916 Myrtle Ave., Granite City.

One of eight children, the union official has a brother, David Gibson, residing in Granite City and two sisters here, Mrs. Elvyn (Marilyn) Byrd and Mrs. Sharon Gibson.

Gibson and his wife, Martha, have two daughters, Billie and Marsha, and a son, Randy.

While he has been away for a few years, he returns to Granite City often and was here only a few days ago. He has strong "roots" in the local community and indicates it will continue to be prominent in his thoughts and actions.

Utility taxes adopted

After several weeks of deliberation the Venice City Council, at a meeting Tuesday evening, passed a three percent tax on all utilities—gas, water, electricity and telephone.

The actual cost will be 3.36 percent as the additional .36 percent will go to the various utility companies for collecting and processing the tax.

The council adopted a separate ordinance on each of the four utilities. Mayor Tyrone Echols cast the tie breaking vote on the electrical and gas ordinances, when after roll call the votes were 4-4.

Voting in favor of the gas and electric ordinances were: Aldermen George Lewis and John Ervin of Ward Three, and Aldermen Victor A. Valentine Sr. and Charles Haynes of Ward Four.

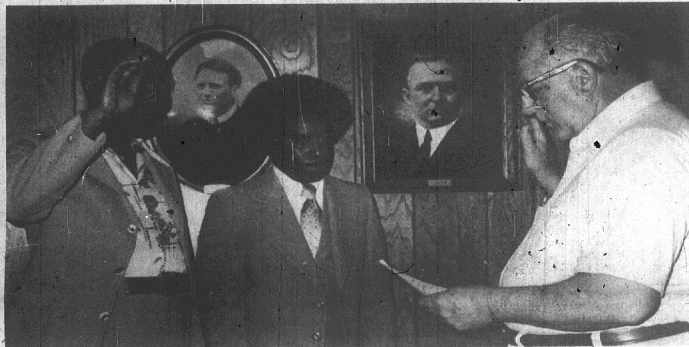

Voting against the gas and electric ordinances were: Aldermen Philip Daniels and E. H. Buente of Ward One, and George Mangiaracino and Hank A. Svezia of Ward Two.

The tax on telephone bills passed with a 6-2 vote. Aldermen Svezia and Mangiaracino voting no.

All eight aldermen voted for the water tax.

The utility tax is expected to bring in approximately $40,000 a year in additional revenue; however, City

Massive city auto license lines expected

The sale of Granite City vehicle tax stickers is running well behind last year and motorists residing in Granite City are being reminded they have only until 5 p.m. Tuesday, May 15, to purchase vehicle stickers before the deadline. The price will increase from $3 to $5.50 per car beginning at 8 a.m. Wednesday and those not displaying stickers on their cars will be subject to arrest.

The stickers are on sale in the city clerk's office in the City Hall, Niedringhaus and Edison avenues.

Truck stickers also are on sale for $8 to $25, depending on the class of the truck. Registration must be shown when purchasing truck stickers.

Senior citizens may purchase auto tax stickers for $1 at the senior citizens' center, 2060 Delmar Ave., through 5 p.m. Tuesday. Proof of age, 65 or older, must be shown.

A spokesman for City Clerk Robert W. Stevens noted that only about 11,000 city stickers had been sold at mid-week and it is estimated that 17,000 will be sold before the deadline.

Long lines of persons waiting to purchase the stickers are anticipated for those who wait until Tuesday.

Family running club to organize

This area's newest running club, the Tri-City Striders, will hold its first official club meeting Friday, May 11, at 5:15 p.m. in the auditorium of the Tri-City Area YMCA, 2001 Edison Ave., 676-7200.

Items on the agenda include election of officers, membership card distribution, and possible planning of local "fun runs." Any area runner interested in this growing activity may attend the meeting.

The Striders is a family running club for beginners to advanced runners. Yearly membership dues are $5 per person or $10 per family.

The South prom committee originally had 150 tickets printed for the Saturday, May 5, event and was pleased when more tickets had to be ordered, a school spokesman said.

GCIS North's prom on Friday, May 4, attracted 155 couples, plus sponsors.

Music was furnished by the Art Lavelle Band, featuring Frank Kozma, from Collinsville, on alto saxophone and Wayne Scannell, of Granite City, on lead guitar and vocal. Location was the Marriott Hotel near Lambert Airport.

Although the proms ended at about midnight, numerous parties were held in various student homes, some until "dawn's early light."

Late night dinners also appeared popular and a spokesman for Charlie's said an estimated 800 students were at the restaurant during the weekend.

At many homes, families entertained the students with an early morning breakfast following the parties.

Fire 2nd levee official

Madison County trustees of the Metro-East Sanitary District Tuesday morning fired James Spanos, chief of operations for the district, for "insubordination."

Board President Russell Robinson of Granite City said Spanos was fired for failure to inform most of the district's employees Friday that they were laid off by a vote of the board.

At the meeting of the board last Friday, attended by only the three Madison County members, a motion was passed laying off all but 29 of the district's 104 employees, because the sanitary district is unable to meet the payroll.

Spanos was ordered by Robinson Friday afternoon to notify the employees of the layoffs, but all employees reported for work again Monday morning.

Robinson said he asked Spanos why the employees were not laid off and Spanos answered that the board does not have the authority to lay off employees.

Spanos contended only Executive Director Wendell Wheadon could order such layoffs and Wheadon was out of town, Robinson related.

Tuesday morning, Robinson posted notice at the sanitary district office in Washington Park that all employees, except 32-week employees, were laid off. A board meeting then was held with only the Madison County board members attending.

Board Member Robert Eastern of St. Clair County was present until moments before the meeting started, but left and did not return during the meeting.

Wheadon came in at the end of the meeting, but Robinson did not ask him to speak. "I did not even formally recognize that he was in the room," Robinson said later, adding, "You have to remember these three board members (from Madison County) fired Mr. Wheadon April 24."

Wheadon's firing remains in question, because the board voted 3-3 on a motion to dismiss him and the Illinois Supreme Court has not yet ruled which county has three legal members on the board and which has two. Likewise, the firing of Spanos by the Madison County trustees may be ignored, but Robinson said neither will be paid for his work.

Currently, the Madison County trustees have control of the sanitary district's checkbook. The St. Clair

Printer since 1919 honored

By BILL WINTER

Editor

Members of Typographical Union Number 8 take their craft seriously and are proud of the newspapers and other printed materials their skills help produce. Among the proudest and most gifted individuals in their ranks is John I. Tempo, who was honored this week as a 60-year member.

St. Louis Union No. 8 has included the Press-Record printers for many years. Printer and then foreman at the Press-Record for four decades until his retirement in 1963, Tempo remains active in caring for his home and lawn 2210 Waterman Ave. despite the fact that he will reach the age of 80 in July.

"I don't drive as much as I used to," Tempo commented this week in explaining why he did not attend Sunday's meeting at which a 70-year member, George Travers Glynn, and 16 six-decade members were honored. He had decided not to fight the traffic bound for Busch Stadium that day.

But he was pleased at the recognition. Sharing in the pleasure were the other Press-Record members No. 8. The Typographers have continued to be an integral part of the newspaper.

A record amount of $204,961 was raised by the KETC, Channel 9, auction which ended April 29, leaders said Tuesday. This represents a 63 percent increase over the 1976 auction, which raised an all-time high of $130,000 for the station.

The Lighter Side

Love and marriage go together just like a horse and carriage...

Today my husband and I celebrate our 12th wedding anniversary. I find it hard to believe that I have been Mrs. Jamison for that long.

How many of us can imagine being married for so long? I must say that it seems as though I have been a married lady for most of my life.

At this point in time, I cannot imagine what it would be like not to wake up in the morning without my grizzly bear.

It takes my darling husband a full hour to become a human being in the morning. I am okay after a cup of coffee or two but he is not ready for other people, myself included, until two minutes before he is scheduled to walk out the door.

Over the years I have learned to deal with the growling and growning that he goes through. I don't think I could get going in the morning myself without that growling.

I have noticed the changes that come with 12 years of marriage. No longer do I cringe during football season, I have learned to do. He, in turn, will watch ice skating competition with me.

I don't do everything with him anymore. We decided long ago that it was okay if we had different interests. It is all right for him to go out and play cards while I go to club.

Of course there are times when we don't agree. I am may fight for hours over something dumb. But he cannot leave without saying he's sorry and telling me he loves me.

Believe me, I am not the easiest person in the world to get along with. I am fiercely independent in some areas and totally dependent in others. I am lucky in that my husband knows which is which and how to deal with each. That only comes from many years of being married.

He totally frustrates me when he's angry, but turns me into silly putty when he's sweet. He will drive me crazy with his passion for order and delight me with surprise gifts.

He is neither devil nor angel. He is a husband, and this column is for him and all of the husbands.

Happy anniversary, Honey.

Paddlers will open May 26

Richard Williams, a teacher-coach at Coolidge Junior High School, will serve as manager of Paddlers, Inc., the local nonprofit family membership swim club, for the 1979 summer season.

Jerry Range, president, who announced Williams' appointment this week, said the club will start its operating season Saturday, May 26, at 1 p.m.

The assistant manager at the twin pool facility, located at 2121 Johnson Road, will be Ken Gattung, a teacher at Granite City High School North and director of Junior Achievement.

The club, which has a membership limit of 450 family shares of stock, currently has no available stock for sale, Range advised.

A waiting list of prospective stock purchasers is maintained by Mrs. Josie Dieck, membership vice-president, in the event stock does become available.

Range said volunteer club members are hard at work completing several projects on the pool grounds under the supervision of Operations Manager Tom Bridick and Jim Chomko, pools and grounds committee chairman.

The recent inclement weather has seriously hampered major repair work being done on the rear pool, Range said.

He added, however, the board of directors still is optimistic that the repairs will be completed before the Memorial Day weekend and the pool's opening date.

Paddlers officers elected this year at the annual meeting, in addition to those mentioned, include:

Don Lane, vice president; Vicki Jacobs, secretary; Barbara Bichler, treasurer; and Robert Becherer, financial vice-president.

Also on the board of directors are Al Lewis Jr., Richard Bills, Lee Suarez, Gayle McCormick, Glen Cornelison, Marvin Fussell, Ed Hein and Jim Chomko.

Members of the Paddlers Advisory Board are Dr. Ben Rose, Burt Peterson, Al Malotki, Francis McBride, Harold Becherer, Earl Buenger, Pat Early, Bob Conreux, John Modica, Jan Polach, Rose Hilker, Phillip Theis and Nancy Halvachs.

Denise Batkey will return as head swim coach for the Paddlers competitive swim team, Range announced, with Gayle McCormick returning as diving team coach.

Paddlers squads compete in the Southwestern Illinois Swim Association.

Membership in the association also includes teams from Collinsville, Alton, Edwardsville, Belleville and Bellefontaine Neighbors in St. Louis.

The competitive squads are sponsored by the Paddlers Swim and Dive Team Parents Club, headed by Barbara Bichler, president.

Swimming lessons are to be offered this summer with a schedule to be announced later, Range said.

Man beaten and robbed

Ennis I. Manning, 47, Augusta, Ga., was beaten and robbed of a large amount of money in Mitchell Monday.

Witnesses said Manning had been drinking in the 15 Acres Tavern on West Chain of Rocks Road and was "flashing" a large roll of money, estimated at $2,000 to $3,000, before the robbery.

Madison County sheriff's deputies also were told he mentioned he might have as much as $7,000 on him.

Witnesses said that when Manning left the tavern, another man was heard to say he was going to rob Manning. The witnesses followed the victim and saw him lying on the ground at the entrance to the KOA Campgrounds with a white over blue Chevrolet two-door auto leaving the scene.

The car had Missouri license plates and two persons, possibly a man and a woman, were inside.

Manning was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center where he was treated for a cut to the back of his head and was admitted.

Deputies said Manning declined to tell them how much money had been taken.

Top state law enforcement officers will speak

By VALERIE EVENDEN of the Press-Record

Dan K. Webb, director of the State of Illinois Department of Law Enforcement, will be the guest speaker Monday night at the annual "Law and Order Banquet," sponsored by Granite City Elks Lodge 1063.

The banquet highlights Law and Order Week which is designated by the Elks to honor all law enforcement officers in the Quad-City area and the Madison County Sheriff's Department.

A cocktail hour with a cash bar and free hors d'oeuvres starts at 6:30 p.m., with a strip steak dinner following at 7:30, according to Elks Exalted Ruler Fred Cunningham.

Cunningham said Earl Buenger is serving as this year's banquet chairman.

Buenger explained that proceeds from Monday's dinner help to defray the cost of a free steak dinner and cocktail hour, scheduled May 17, to which all area police officers are invited.

Special donations also are contributed to each police department to be used for youth activities in their communities, the chairman said.

Awards for "outstanding performance" are presented to the departments as part of the appreciation night festivities.

Col. Mearl J. Justus, Cahokia chief of police, will serve as master-of-ceremonies, Buenger announced.

Arrangements have been made to use the First Granite City National Bank parking area for this occasion, he added.

Dan Webb was appointed director of the State of Illinois Department of Law Enforcement in January of this year.

The department consists of 3,000 employees, with 2,000 being law enforcement officers responsible for the statewide enforcement of Illinois criminal statutes and traffic laws.

For the past several years, Webb also has been a part-time instructor, teaching trial practice and procedure, at the John Marshall Law School in Chicago.

Before taking over this year as the state's top law enforcement officer, Webb was a partner in the law firm of Cummins, Decker and Webb in Chicago from August 1976, primarily engaged in civil and criminal litigation in federal and state courts.

Prior to re-entering the private practice of law in 1976, the state officer spent six years in the United States Attorney's Office, prosecuting over 200 criminal cases with about 35 cases being tried before a jury.

Webb successfully obtained convictions in 34 of the jury trials that ranged from "street crime" type cases, including bank robberies, narcotics violations, thefts and bad checks, to lengthy and complicated trials involving intricate financial frauds and public corruption.

Some of the more significant trials in which the guest speaker played the principal role included:

The successful prosecution of a former Cook County clerk and state treasurer of Illinois for bribery, income tax evasion and mail fraud.

The prosecution, also successful, of the fourth highest ranking police officer in the city of Chicago, together with 23 other Chicago policemen, for extortion and perjury.

The trial lasted about three months and involved the trial testimony of over 100 witnesses, including 60 tavern owners who were victimized by the extortion scheme charged in the indictment.

Two other trials of note, brought to successful conclusion through Webb's efforts, involved a Chicago alderman for failure to report payoffs on his federal income tax return, and Illinois General Assembly legislators for receiving bribes to pass legislation.

Webb handled a wide variety of legal issues in criminal appeal cases before the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals, each appeal being affirmed by the court.

Several extensive and complicated grand jury investigations headed by Webb resulted in the return of numerous significant indictments.

Corruption in the Chicago Police Department involved a grand jury investigation extending for more than two years and resulted in the return of 11 indictments charging over 40 Chicago police officers with extortion, perjury and other crimes.

Webb directed a team of 10 FBI agents, who interviewed hundreds of witnesses in a successful effort to uncover police corruption in Chicago during this investigation.

Fraudulent loans by a Central States, Southeast and Southwest areas pension fund also was brought to a successful conclusion under Webb's leadership in an investigation lasting over a year.

The result was the return of an indictment against several fund representatives, including the fund's special consultant.

Along with the pension fund representatives, the indictment charged several alleged organized crime figures with participating in a complicated financial fraud in which the fund representatives were alleged to have made fraudulent loans in excess of $2 million to the crime figures.

As an administrator in the United States Attorney's Office, Webb served as deputy chief of the Criminal Division, primarily developing legal training programs for lawyers within the office and supervising new assistant U.S. attorneys when joining the staff.

Webb also was chief of the Criminal Receiving and Appellate Division, supervising 25 attorneys handling criminal and appellate matters. Later, he became chief of the Special Prosecutions Division with a staff of 20 lawyers prosecuting public corruption and financial fraud cases.

Webb, 33, is a native of Bushnell, Ill. He is married and has two children.

He received his juris doctor degree (cum laude) in June 1970 from Loyola University School of Law in Chicago, completing one-third of his legal education in day school and two-thirds at night school.

He earned his undergraduate degree in 1966 from Western Illinois University at Macomb, majoring in history with minors in philosophy and political science.

Webb is a member of the Metropolitan Fair and Exposition Authority and served on the Governor's Revenue Study Commission in 1977-78.

He received the Justice Department's Special Commendation Award in 1975.

Cyclist loses leg in crash

Paul Benvenuto, 22, Collinsville, suffered multiple injuries, including the severing of his left leg below the knee, when his motorcycle and a truck collided on Route 3 (formerly Route 151) at West Chain of Rocks Road at 3:10 p.m. Tuesday.

State troopers were told the truck of Jerry O. Booth, 43, Dow, Ill., entered the intersection southbound on Route 3, violating a red light, as the eastbound motorcycle came into the intersection on West Pontoon Road and they collided.

Benvenuto was taken by a Granite City ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center where he was taken immediately into surgery and then was admitted to the intensive care unit. He was listed in stable condition. He also suffered abrasions to his left shoulder and abdomen and pain to his neck.

Booth received a ticket alleging violation of a red light.

Meeting tonight on Lola-Veronica work

The Chouteau Town Board of Trustees and the commissioners of the Chouteau, Nameoki and Venice Levee and Drainage district will meet in a special session of the town board at 7 p.m. today to clarify the status of a drainage project being funded through the township with Community Development grant funds.

The contractor for improvements to the Stanley Ditch near Lola Drive and Veronica Street is seeking payment for work which has been done on the project.

The levee commissioners indicated, during the regular town board meeting Monday night that some questions about the scope of the work and the design of the project should be answered before final payment is made.

The contractor, Kamadulski Excavating, completed most of the work in September, but recent flooding has made portions of the job difficult or impossible to do, until the ditch dries.

The board also voted Monday night to seek bids on equipment for a township mosquito-spraying program. It was indicated the highway department may be able to provide a truck for the program and township employees can be trained and certified as spray operators immediately. The bids will be opened at the board's next regular meeting May 21.

4 injured in Rt. 3 crash

Four persons were injured when the pickup truck of Mrs. Daisy Smock, 54, Washington Park, traveling north in the southbound lanes of Route 3, collided with the auto of William Burch, 65, of 2923 Roosevelt Ave., at 7:15 p.m. Tuesday, one-half mile south of West Pontoon Road.

Both drivers and two passengers in Burch's auto were taken by a Granite City ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center. Mrs. Smock received tickets alleging reckless driving and going the wrong way in a one-way lane.

Burch was treated for a bump to his head and pain to ribs. X-rays were negative and he was released.

Also injured was Michael Hinchcliff, 8, of the same address, a passenger in the Burch car. He went to the hospital, but did not require treatment, authorities said.

Mrs. Smock suffered abrasions to her left lower leg, had neck and back pains and was dazed.

HURT ON NAMEOKI

Mrs. Marjorie Baler, 29, Collinsville, was injured when her car and the auto of Joseph Hassler III, 2344 Emert Ave., collided on Nameoki Road and Cottage Avenue at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday. She sought treatment at St. Elizabeth Medical Center after bumping her chest on the steering wheel. She was released after treatment.

production process despite numerous mechanical and procedural changes over the years.

Tempo was among the many who utilized movable pieces of type from large computerized trays, forming words a letter at a time when advertisements or headlines required a particular style or family of type.

He also was adept at mixing lines of type—cast from molten metal—to form intricate grocery and furniture ads.

A genuine artisan at his trade, Tempo could not create pictures with varying widths and lengths of type, once making the image of an open book, with each thin page delineated by a separate piece of metal.

Long a member of the composing room staff, Tempo also was active in programs of the Tri-City Trades and Labor Council (AFL-CIO) and earlier councils.

He continues to show keen interest in the Press-Record and in its fellow Post Corp. paper, the Collinsville Herald. Born in Italy, Tempo came to the United States in 1907 at the age of seven, his family settling in Collinsville. He has resided in Granite City since marrying and moving here in 1922.

His wife, Florence, passed away in 1976 but his daughters, Grace and June, are still in the area and there are three grandchildren.

Tempo's ways have been an avid fan of Collinsville High School Kahok basketball since its unique success, including several state championships, may stem in part from the unflinching interest of such followers of the hardwood sport as the 57-year Granite Cityan, whose heart and presence have never strayed from the CHS gymnasium. Sons of many of his friends and former neighbors have starred on the teams.

Printer

Tempo joined No. 4 in 1919 at a meeting in Edwardsville after he had obtained work with Mike Daley's printing company in Collinsville. In those days, coal miners qualified for their pay by attaching their names to filled coal cars, and Daley supplied the tickets used for that purpose.

After a year, Tempo moved on to the Mulligan Printing Co. at Third and Pine streets in St. Louis, and a year after that he joined a Granite City newspaper known as the Post. He next obtained work at the Press-Record when it was situated on the southeast side of Delmar Avenue, across the street and down the block from its present location. The Post later was acquired by the Press-Record, more than 40 years before the P-R was acquired by an unrelated Post Corp., Lewis Lindley. Tempo also worked for publishers E. E. Campbell and C. E. Townsend.

"Hot type" was replaced by "cold type" here and at many other publications in the 1970s. Offset press units are in daily use, printing a wide variety of newspapers, in contrast to the letterpresses that were operated primarily two days a week during the

John Tempo years.

Computerized formulation of type occurs to an extent in two P-R departments nowadays. There is concentration not only on the all-important printing quality but also on such diverse fields as advertising, which is on the increase, circulation, which is on the rise, and publishing of numerous other papers on the giant P-R 56-page color press, also on the upturn.

The new press was constructed last year only a few hundred feet from where Tempo began his Press-Record tenure, and only a few feet from where he spent the majority of his printing career. It is unlike the newspaper and job presses with which he became familiar, but he is proud of the new equipment and often visits the pressroom.

John Tempo no longer is directly associated with this newspaper and the passing years have changed some things—like the appearance of the composing room, the location of the newsroom, and the scope and dimensions of each day's busy activities. But Tempo remains physically fit and surprisingly unchanged by the passage of time, now measured in more leisurely fashion for him than in the pressure-packed years of newspaper and commercial work deadlines.

Members of the present staff say he will always be a part of the Press-Record's tradition of service to the public—and an outstanding example of its devotion to craftsmanship and excellence.

million next year when personal property will be taken off.

"I don't like taxes, either, none of us do, but it is a fact of life that if we want city services like police and streets we have to pay for them."

"We have looked into a city earnings tax but we cannot have it. We are not a home rule city and the state legislature is not allowing even home rule cities to have an earnings tax," Eshols said. Prior to the vote Alderman Daniels made tax suggestions which were not accepted by the council.

One proposal was a partial exemption for senior citizens, and the other was for percentages of 2-3-5-5 on gas, electricity, water and phone service.

The council approved transfer of $4,000 from federal revenue funds to the library and $15,000 from federal revenue sharing to the general operating fund of the city.

It was noted that the city may have to borrow additional funds in order to meet payrolls before the end of the calendar year.

Beatty

"I am obviously very pleased with Sen. Stevenson's nomination. It will open up a new field for me in areas of law that I have not had an opportunity to be involved in. It is going to be extremely interesting, from a legal standpoint," Beatty told the Press-Record.

Beatty was born in Mendota, Ill., and spent his childhood in East St. Louis. At the age of 26, he moved to Granite City, where he has resided since.

He attended Washington University for three years before entering law school at St. Louis University, where he received his law degree. He was in private practice in Granite City from 1950 to 1968, when he was selected as a circuit judge. He served eight years in the county courthouse in Edwardsville before being assigned two years ago to Granite City, where he currently presides.

Asked if he will have trouble adapting to the changes involved in the federal courts, Beatty stated, "I don't believe so. I have been licensed to practice law in the federal courts since 1951 and I have kept in touch with it."

Beatty said that if the Senate confirms his appointment, "I will miss the lawyers and the work here. I have enjoyed it. I will continue to live in Granite City, because I like it here."

Health care costs can be controlled. We proved it!

Last year, the Illinois Voluntary Effort to Contain Health Care Costs (IIVE), reduced the rate of increase in hospital expenditures from 14.7 percent to 8.4 percent across the state.

In addition, state-approved capital expenditures by hospitals were limited to 63 percent of the price-adjusted average for the preceding three years.

The Voluntary Effort enabled hospitals and physicians responsible for patient care to promote sound management practices and increase efficiency without compromising the quality of care provided.

Obviously, the health care community is not immune to the inflationary pressures every American feels. Its food and energy costs are rising dramatically. New technology to detect and treat illness and injuries is often expensive. And workers in the health field now demand that their wages and benefits be on a par with all industry.

Despite these pressures, the Illinois Voluntary Effort reduced the rate of increase of expenditures by more than 6 percentage points in Illinois hospitals in 1978.

No one can say for certain whether these results can be sustained indefinitely. But one thing is sure: Voluntary efforts work.

We've proved it.

Intrastate barge user tax fails

On a 5-5 vote, the Illinois State Senate Committee on Revenue has failed to pass a motion to send to the full Senate a bill seeking to impose a one-cent per 100-mile tax on all freight and passengers transported by barge within Illinois.

Voyages begun or terminated in other states would have been exempted. Bill sponsor Senator George E. Sangmeister (D-Will County), was the only person speaking for passage during hearings preceding the vote.

Nineteen members of the public were recorded as opposed to the legislation, known as Senate Bill 1480. Those testifying in Springfield against it included Illinois barge operators, the American Waterways Operators, Illinois businessmen, and representatives of port and maritime interests.

Most stressed the negative impact such a tax would have on present industry and future development of industry in Illinois. They said the tax would put Illinois industry at a disadvantage vis-a-vis other states, since interstate moves were exempted.

The Illinois departments of Agriculture, Economic Development and Transportation were recorded in opposition to the bill.

On the committee, opposition was led by Senator Samuel C. Maragos (D-Chicago), who stressed the adverse impact it would have on the various port districts in Illinois, including the Port of Chicago, which lies within the senator's district.

Saunders recovering

Arven H. Saunders, 66, and his wife, Ljude, are in good spirits and recovering well from a serious automobile accident.

According to sources who have talked with Saunders, he and his wife are making a good recovery and are anxious to return to Saudi Arabia to continue his work there.

The Saunders were seriously injured in an accident on April 26 in Saudi Arabia. The car in which they were riding was sideswiped at night by an unlighted water truck.

Saunders was thrown from the car and received numerous cuts and bruises. Mrs. Saunders, who remained in the car, sustained a broken arm and leg and multiple cuts and bruises.

Following the accident, the Saunders were flown to a hospital in London, England, where they are receiving treatment for their injuries.

Saunders was executive director of the St. Louis Metropolitan Area Airport Authority from January 1971 until February 1979, when he took a position with the Saudi Arabian government as coordinator of international airports projects. He is responsible for the development of that country's new airports.

The St. Louis Metropolitan Area Airport Authority is the sponsor of a proposed St. Louis international airport at a federally approved Columbia-Waterloo, Ill., site.

Progress on new school

TO OPEN IN FALL OF 1979. The new Madison middle school (sixth, seventh and eighth grades) is being constructed on the west side of the Stephen Maera Industrial Park on English Street. The new school is located about four blocks north of Madison High School. Above, several walls of the school's gymnasium have been set into place by masonry workers and the roof of the structure is to be added in the near future. Below is an exterior view of the school as seen from Mc-

Casland Avenue and English Street. The windowless design makes the structure more secure and leaves less chance for vandalism, designers point out. At the left, Superintendent of Schools John Palchek inspects the administrative area of the school. This area will house the offices of the principal, assistant principal and secretaries, the nurse's station, two offices for counselors, a teachers' lounge and a conference room.

Family crusade theme at church

The Church of God of Prophecy located at 1732 Rhodes St., Madison, is participating in a church-wide evangelistic effort from Easter to Pentecost sponsored by the world headquarters based in Cleveland, Tenn.

Citing a decline of family life in America and a decline of church membership in some denominations, the church group, which experienced a 46.4 percent overall membership growth last year, has chosen "Family Reunion Crusade" as the title.

The endeavor is designed to strengthen the family life of the church's constituency, as well as to reestablish contact and fellowship with former members and friends of the church.

Pastor Eugene Hooker and the local church have selected the week of May 9-13 for special services are extending an invitation to the public to attend. The speaker for the revival is William Henson, a former pastor.

Trinity tabernacle revival

An eight-day revival starts Sunday at Trinity Tabernacle, 2001 Sixth St., Madison, with the public invited to attend all services.

The Rev. Curtis Hines, pastor, said the revival will feature the evangelistic group—The Cale Family, originally from Ohio, which now tours various states.

In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Cale, the family includes a daughter, Tracy, 20, who provides piano accompaniment, and two sons, David, 22, bass guitarist, and Clay, 18, drummer. The Cale Family writes its own music. Rev. Hines said. Services will be held each evening through Sunday, May 20, at the church. All will start at 7 o'clock.

Rev. Hines recently completed several years of theological studies and received an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from the International Bible Institute of Orlando, Fla., it was announced this week.

The April 1979 McKinley Bridge report showed 322,919 vehicles crossing the bridge during the month, an increase of 1,032 vehicles per day over the month of April 1978. The daily average for vehicle crossings during the past month was 10,750.

Man stabbed in Mitchell

Oliver Gibson, 46, of Turnbury, Ohio, suffered stab wounds to his throat and left chest following a disturbance at the 15 Acres Lounge on West Chain of Rocks Road in Mitchell at 11:46 p.m. Tuesday.

Madison County sheriff's deputies were told of a fight in progress, and when they arrived, were told one man left on foot west on Chain of Rocks Road and the other was enroute to St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Authorities said they were treating a man for stab wounds. He was taken to surgery and then was admitted. He suffered a one-inch cut to his throat and a four-inch cut to his chest.

Deputies spoke to Gibson and he said he did not know who stabbed him.

Witnesses alleged a man had been trying to start a fight during the evening with truck drivers, saying he could beat all truck drivers in fist fights.

Major crimes reported in April, with April of 1978 in parentheses, total: robbery, one (two); forcible rape, zero (two); assault, 21 (same); burglary, 47 (same); auto burglary 35 (26); larceny, 56 (79); and auto theft, 10 (13).

GC arrests up sharply

Arrests for major crimes in Granite City were up 196 percent in April, as compared to April of 1978, a monthly report released today by Chief of Police Ronald K. Fremlay.

Veizer said highlights of the report include a 333 percent increase in arrests in burglary cases, a 366 percent increase in auto burglary arrests, a 220 percent increase in larceny cases cleared by arrest and a 166 percent increase in auto theft arrests, when April is compared with the same month last year.

The report also shows decreases in the numbers of robbery, larceny and auto theft cases last month, compared to a year earlier, but auto burglary cases show a 35 percent increase.

A series of crimes reported in April, with April of 1978 in parentheses, total: robbery, one (two); forcible rape, zero (two); assault, 21 (same); burglary, 47 (same); auto burglary 35 (26); larceny, 56 (79); and auto theft, 10 (13).

Gibson and another man left, and a minute later, Gibson returned, bleeding from the throat, the witnesses said.

An Oklahoma man, who suffered minor injuries in the scuffle, was questioned at the sheriff's department and was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center for treatment. He was released without charges being filed.

A 35-millimeter camera and lens were stolen from Dacor Photo, 1907 Delmar Ave., about 4:55 p.m. Tuesday. A clerk said a couple entered the store and separated. While he was waiting on the woman, the man went into the rear storeroom. When asked why he was there, the man said he was just looking around. They left in a car with Missouri license plates and the clerk then discovered the camera, owned by John Fornaszewski, 3009 Nameoki Road, had been taken.

Plan Commission requests include one from Henry Ross requesting C-1 commercial zoning for property on Maryville Road south of Colonial Bank for construction of a commercial building. ROTARY AIDS PARK. A change has come to the median area where Nameoki Road and Madison Avenue meet. The area, once overgrown by weeds, now sports a landscaped look, thanks to the efforts of Robert Lombardi and the Granite City Rotary Club. The idea was Lombardi's, a Rotarian, and with the help of the club "red tape" was cut in order for the state-owned property to become a small park. State Architect Otto Pauesick drew the final plans and B and E Plantland did the work. Above, Plantland's Ed Plegge prepares to plant a shrub while Wayne Curtis (background) works on another.

Illinois is called key to bi-state region growth

"The future growth of this region has got to be in your area. We are literally out of land in St. Louis and St. Louis County. Don't think too small when you talk about the circumferential highway (I-270). It is going to open up a lot of acreage."

James O'Flynn, president of the Regional Commerce and Growth Association, explained the heavy involvement of RCGA in the effort to attract a $500 million Japanese automobile factory to this area in a talk to the Metro-East Chambers of Commerce Association (MECCA) Tuesday night at Rousto's Restaurant in Collinsville.

"For the past two years we have been working on it with the Tri-City Regional Port Authority's foreign trade zone. The choice is down to three to five sites. We believe we're tops. We had an audience with Governor Jim Thompson. We not only asked support, we asked him to lead a delegation to Japan."

"A dozen governors have already gone to Japan. He has agreed to lead the delegation," O'Flynn said. Edward Schnuck, chairman of RCGA, O'Flynn, and representatives of the Tri-City Port are in the delegation.

"What this whole region needs is a success story. A plant worth $500 million, with 5,000 jobs, would be the catalyst to put us on the map," the speaker said.

On another topic, O'Flynn deplored the divisive effect of long court cases over a second air terminal for the region, sited at Columbia-Waterloo. "It has done more harm than good in building a wall down the river," he said.

O'Flynn said the RCGA had been involved in front the start. Our official position has not changed. We were the first and only regional organization to say we should develop a land bank program for a metropolitan airport. Develop Lambert-St. Louis to its maximum, but be ready."

O'Flynn sketched the genesis of a current air freight terminal plan, saying it would cost far less than a full-scale, all-purpose airport.

"Flying Tiger airline, the biggest freight line, came into St. Louis looking for a site. They had been asked to leave O'Hare in Chicago. They had 40 jumbo (747) planes sitting there daily. They would like to be near a major metropolitan center, not necessarily a major passenger facility."

"Flying Tiger alone would need 10 acres of concrete to handle their jets. Abandoned World War II airfields at Topeka, Kan., Lincoln, Neb., and Lawrenceville, Ill., were their first choices."

"We introduced them to the Illinois Airport Authority. We encouraged the Authority to make a preliminary presentation. Our board said, 'Let the Illinois Authority make the feasibility studies.'"

O'Flynn said the RCGA formed Association for the Improvement of the Mississippi River had already spent $200,000 battling for replacement of Alton Lock and Dam 28 through the courts. "It will probably cost us another $200,000," he said.

"It will be the largest single construction project in the history of the Midwest," O'Flynn said, "with 10,000 jobs during construction."

The RCGA president emphasized the regional concept in its approach to problems. It does not want to compete with local chambers and it doesn't want members who drop out of their local groups," he said. RCGA deals with a region of 2,400,000 people.

Text of bill on Sanitary District

Following is the text of House Bill 2776, introduced in the Illinois House of Representatives by Rep. Sam Wolf (D-Granite City) to divide the Metro-East Sanitary District along the Madison St. Clair County line:

Be it resolved by the people of the state of Illinois, represented by the General Assembly:

Section 1. Each sanitary district created under the "Metro-East Sanitary District Act of 1974," approved July 18, 1974, as amended, is dissolved.

Each county in which any part of such district is located shall succeed to the district as to the territory of the district which is located in the county and shall provide drainage and sewage disposal services for the territory of the district located in the county which territory is constituted a special service area of the county for that purpose.

The county may levy as to such special service area, without referendum, taxes for the purpose of providing such services and paying obligations assumed in connection with the dissolution of the sanitary district at rates not exceeding the rates authorized by law for the sanitary district before its dissolution.

Section 2. Drainage, levee, sanitary and appurtenant or related improvements, situated in one county and serving more than one county in such district shall continue to serve the territory of such district and the operation, maintenance, repair, rehabilitation, restoration and replacement costs of such facilities involving an outlet structure, reservoir or impoundment or pumping station to the Mississippi River shall be assumed by and become the obligation and responsibility of the county having the greater portion of the drainage served by such facilities in the former district, provided that such other county shall reimburse the county having such obligation and responsibility for a proportionate share of the total cost thereof based upon flow of water and treatment costs related thereto which shall be reimbursed quarterly upon a certified itemized statement rendered by the county board as provided by agreement between such districts, unless otherwise provided by law.

Section 3. Nothing in this act shall impair the security of any indebtedness of the original district incurred before the effective date of this act. The special service areas of the successor counties shall pay a proportionate share of the indebtedness of the original district outstanding on the effective date of this act, according to the percentage of equalized assessed valuation of all taxable property in the respective special service areas to the equalized assessed valuation of all property within the boundaries of the district on the effective date of this act. The direct annual tax provided for in accordance with Section 5-2 of the Metro-East Sanitary District Act of 1974 to pay the interest on and principal of such indebtedness shall continue to be levied and extended against all the taxable property within the boundaries of the original district as they existed immediately before its dissolution in the manner provided in section 5-1 of that act for the levy, extension and collection of taxes of districts situated in more than one county until the indebtedness incurred before the effective date of this act has been paid in full.

Section 4. Real property belonging to the former district shall be allocated between the two successor counties in accordance with the county in which the real property is situated, except that such counties may provide by agreement for the operation, maintenance, rehabilitation, repair, restoration or replacement of any drainage, levee, sanitary or other structures and facilities situated in serving more than one county. Tangible personal property shall be allocated between such districts in accordance with the location of the respective facilities under which the personal property is listed in the latest inventory of the former district. Cash shall be allocated between the two districts in proportion to the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein.

This act does not impair the validity or affect the ordinances, orders, resolutions or the collection of taxes of the former district, including the 1979 taxes payable in 1980. Such taxes, except any tax to pay the interest on and principal of bonded indebtedness, shall when collected be paid any county collector to his county.

Insurance programs or benefits for employees and trustees, establishment and maintenance of an office for the conduct of official business by the districts and other rights or obligations, including, but not limited to an interim budget, provided under existing legislation shall remain in full force and effect until such time as otherwise provided for by the successor counties, which shall be accomplished within one year from the effective date of this act.

Section 5. Each county which succeeds to functions of a sanitary district under this act shall be responsible for the prosecution or defense, as the case may be, of any cause of action arising within the territorial area of such former district lying in the county accruing before the effective date of this act. Any amounts recovered by a district in any such action shall be divided between the counties succeeding such district in proportion to the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein as determined by the latest assessment figures available on the effective date of this act. The two counties shall, in like manner, be responsible for their proportionate shares of any adverse judgment in any such action. Each successor county shall have the right to intervene in any such proceeding for the protection of its interest.

Section 6. Each county which succeeds a sanitary district under this act, unless otherwise provided by law, shall assume full responsibility for and be and become obligated as provided in this act to perform all necessary maintenance, repair, rehabilitation, restoration or replacement of levees, ditches, drains or other buildings, structures or facilities and shall cooperate with other counties succeeding the same sanitary district to continue an effective operation for the drainage of storm water, operation of sanitary sewers, treatment plants and other facilities in the area of the original district, and may mutually enter into and enforce contracts to assure such cooperation.

(Chapter 42, rep. paragraphs 501-1 through 505-6)

Section 7. The "Metro-East Sanitary District Act of 1974," approved July 18, 1974, as amended, is repealed.

Section 8. This act takes effect upon its becoming a law.

Business Women will install

LaVelle Stephens, a lifelong resident of Madison, will be installed Wednesday, May 16, as president of the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club. The installation will take place at a dinner meeting, scheduled at 6:30 p.m. at the Lewis and Clark Restaurant, East Alton.

Reservations will be accepted through Saturday, May 12, by calling Mrs. Elvira Thurber, at 876-6535, between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., and at 876-3618 after 5 p.m.

Lois Wetton, the retiring president, is chairman of the installation banquet. She is being assisted by past presidents of the club, among whom is Mrs. Thurber.

Born and reared in Madison, the BPW's incoming president resides at 844 Third St. with her mother, Mrs. Ella Odum.

Her father, the late Harry Odum, was active in Madison County politics. Mrs. Stephens has worked in the trucking industry for the last 25 years, and has been connected with various companies during this time, including as a special commodities division dispatcher.

Currently, she is employed by Jay J. Kelley, Trucking Enterprise, Inc., a trucking brokerage firm for several companies. The firm is located at the Gateway Truck Stop, Interstate 70 and Route 203. Mrs. Stephens became a member of BPW in 1974, being sponsored by Lorene Sadrakula, a past president.

In addition to her role as president-elect of the Granite City BPW Club this year, she previously served as first vice-president and program chairman, second vice-president and bylaws chairman, corresponding secretary, yearbook chairman and director of the Young Careerist program. Mrs. Stephens provided active leadership in the past 12 months in such BPW sponsored activities as "Women Involved," an educational workshop for area women held last September, and was chairman of the BPW Prayer Breakfast last month.

At the District 14 level, she has been co-chairman of the Individual Development Program and was treasurer of the BPW Southern Leadership Conference held at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville last June.

Mrs. Stephens has been official delegate to several BPW state conventions and was delegate to the BPW national convention last July in Puerto Rico. She is a member of the First United Presbyterian Church of Madison.

Mrs. Stephens is the mother of three children.

A son, Harry Stephens and his wife, Wanda, and their children, Becky and Tim, live in Granite City.

Her two daughters and the other grandchildren are Mrs. Carl (Paula) Holem and children, Angie, Carla and Bradley, who reside in Glen Carbon, and Mrs. Joe (Susan) Gross and daughter, Jennifer, who live in Granite City.

She has a brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. (Nancy) Odum. They and their three children also are Granite City residents.

Sallie Jo Burton, a past president of the Collinsville BPW Club and a past District 14 chairman, will serve as installing officer, Mrs. Wetton announced this week.

Those to be installed with Mrs. Stephens are:

Rosalie Stern, president-elect; Ollie Derr, first vice-president; Beverly Stone, second vice-president; Pearl Kennerly, treasurer; Betty May, recording secretary; Carolyn Frye, corresponding secretary; and new board members, Sharold Yount, Cathy Jamison, Lori Houser, Norma Mendoza, Dianne Capps and Alberta Schuber.

Census hiring 46 youths for summer

The U.S. Bureau of the Census is taking applications at the Job Service office in Granite City for about 46 persons to work in the pre-list operation for the 1980 census.

Plans are to hire approximately three crew leaders, who will be supervisory personnel, about three quality control enumerators and 40 pre-list enumerators.

A census official explained that the operation consists of going to all the houses in a designated district and listing the addresses and heads of the households. The Census Bureau is seeking high school graduates with their own cars, who are available to work 40 hours a week for four to five weeks. Crew leaders and quality control clerks will work about eight to 10 weeks. They will start in early June and pre-list enumerators will start the latter part of June. Applications and appointments for testing are available at the Job Service (state employment security) office at 1820 Cleveland Blvd. Pay will range from $3.60 to $3.85 per hour, depending on the job and area covered.

Rockathon Saturday

The Granite City Society for Crippled Children will hold the third annual Rockathon at the ice rink in Wilson Park on Saturday, May 12. The event will start at 9 a.m. and continue until 9 p.m., with a combination of individual preference.

Participants may "rock" in a chair or may dance, or both. Students of the speech classes at Granite City High School South are helping to make the rockathon a success. They have selected Kit Wamsley as their chairman, with co-chairmen John Manogian, Charles Bennington, and Susan Range.

Ron Pennell, director of the speech department, is serving as their adviser. John Fornaszewski will furnish music for the dancing with a variety of student bands. A VIP "rock" is scheduled from 3 p.m. until 4 p.m. VIPs in the area have been invited to participate for this one hour. Leader Stan Fornaszewski will present the 17-piece Granite City Big Band Machine at that time, featuring music from the 1940s in the style of Glenn Miller.

Lunch will be served to the participants at 11:30 a.m., furnished by Sambo's, McDonald's, Shasta Beverage Co. and Pepsi Cola Bottling Co. of Alton. The evening meal will be prepared by American Legion Auxiliary Unit 113, with President Barbara Weathers and Past President Doris Hitchcock in charge. Food will be by Miller's Provision, Hamilos Brothers, Tarlas Meat Co., Edray Foods and Schulze and Burch.

Nestle, Inc., will have a NesTea Stand throughout the event, serving NesTea and lemonade. Sponsor sheets are available from students of the speech classes at South, Society members and Michel's Jewelry and Gift Shop. Those who have a rocking chair to loan, including lawn rockers, may call Dave Whitsett at 931-3804 for pickup.

In a letter to the Illinois Department of Transportation, C.K. Zellman, staff engineer for ITRR, explained that on Monday, the outside lanes will be asphalted, necessitating the closing of one lane at a time and by outside lanes will be reopened. The inside lanes will remain open.

On Tuesday, the inside lanes will be asphalted and the median will be asphaltd and will be closed to the work. As soon as the "hot mix" has had time to set, the lanes will be reopened to traffic, the letter explained.

C.D. Peters Construction Co., of Granite City, is contractor for the work.

FASCINATED TOURISTS. "So that's where it comes from," a McKinley School pupil said while inspecting a refrigerated milk storage tank Friday at the Marvin Stille farm, northeast of Alhambra. She found the cows are milked in an area behind the rear wall with the milk flowing along the pipes to the tank. This tank is destined for Prairie Farms Dairy in Granite City. From left to right are Mrs. Mary Clements, a mother who assisted on the farm trip, Cindy Clements, Tim Wilson, Dewayne Smith, Stacy Pruett, Kim Vago and Mrs. Leila Jones, a second grade teacher. Mike Moody and Steve Nelson are partially visible in the background at left.

Quad-City elementary children touring farms

By VALERIE EVENDEN of the Press-Record

Some Quad-City youngsters got their first close-up view of farm animals Friday and more school children in grades one through six are scheduled to meet "Mr. and Mrs. Farmer" and their cows, pigs and horses, in person, within the next two weeks.

Friday's visit to a working farm was part of a series of farm tours being conducted this month for children from Granite City, Madison and Venice elementary schools.

The tours are under the sponsorship of the Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program of the University of Illinois Cooperative Extension Service.

Sixty youngsters from McKinley Grade School in Granite City, along with their teacher, Mrs. Irma Sanders, visited the Marvin Stille farm Friday.

The farm is located northeast of Alhambra, off Route 140, and the youthful pupils were given a guided tour around the property by Mr. and Mrs. Stille.

Mrs. Linda Irwin, a teacher at Lake School, will escort 40 of her students to the Stille farm on Friday, May 11.

According to Jan Perkins, Madison County 4-H and youth adviser for the Cooperative Extension Service, a total of 38 teachers in to Quad-City area schools utilized teaching packets prepared by the extension program.

The packets were designed for grades one through six and reached more than 1,050 school children.

Primarily, the farm tours are being used to culminate the nutrition activities so the kids can learn by seeing, rather than by talking, about such things as pigs and cows, Larry D. Lappin, Extension adviser and assistant in agriculture, explained.

Just seeing a farm animal close up is a rarity for some of the children, he added.

Question and answer sessions are held following the tours and, of course, a multitude of questions are asked by the youngsters while walking around the farms, Lappin said.

This Thursday and the following Thursday, May 17, will be busy days at the Bill Dorsey farm, north of Dorsey, also off Route 140.

On each of those two days, 100 pupils from Harris School in Madison will pay a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey's farm.

The Harris School children will be accompanied by teacher Terry Bartels.

At 10 a.m. Friday, 60 youngsters from Webster School in Granite City, accompanied by Mrs. Phyllis Nation, a teacher, will tour the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Grotendorf, located just west of Marine, off Route 143.

About one hour later, 21 children will arrive at the same farm from Venice Grade School, escorted by Mrs. June McClain.

The Carl Baumann farm, which lies due east of Highland, off Route 40, will be the objective of first, second and third grade pupils from Blair School in Madison.

The three groups, consisting of 60 youngsters in each, will tour the farm at 10 and 11 a.m. and at 1 p.m. Friday, accompanied by Mrs. Betty Williams, teacher.

The Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program (EFNEP), sponsored by the University of Illinois Cooperative Extension Service, has branches in 20 Illinois counties, including Madison.

Luke 2:51... And he went down with them, and was subject unto them; but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

I have often thought of the great honor bestowed upon Mary, she was chosen by God to bear His son Jesus. Even Mary rejoiced and said, My soul doth magnify the Lord!

During this time, the week of Mother's Day, I think of Mary, the mother of Jesus, who kept all these sayings in her heart. There were prophecies and statements that pertained to the supernatural realm of God, the Father. Never questioning; she just filled her heart with those things she did not understand.

How large a heart a mother must have! There must be room not only for one child, but quite often more than one. Fathers too, with their needs, are taken into a mother's heart. With wisdom, patience, and understanding, she watches over those she loves so much.

Make this a special, special week for mother. Start today.

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City High School North track team successfully defended its city championship here yesterday with an overwhelming 147 victory over Granite City South at North's Steeler Field.

The victory by North came a bit easier than the one last season when it had to win the last event of the meet — the mile relay — to take the title. Yesterday, there was little doubt of the outcome after the first few events.

North jumped out on top early by taking decisions in the two mile and 400 relay events and never looked back.

In fact, North took first place in 12 of the meet's 18 events, including a sweep of all relays.

The North relay team of Russ Kestel, Jeff Joyce, Glenn Edwards and Aaron Hickam took that event and the Steeler team of Mark Jones, Tim Dudley, John Kefalas and Kevin Buchanan followed with a time of 4:00 relay.

The North mile relay team of Bill Portell, Glenn Thompson, Glenn Edwards and Roberto Cuevas won that event easily with a time of 3:47, compared to South's time of 3:58.4. North's 880 yard relay team won that event in a time of 1:36.7.

South's time was 1:38.9. One of the few highlights on the day for South was the performance of its two distance stars, Dave Houston and Dave Taylor.

They ran one-two in both the mile and two-mile runs after traveling stride-for-stride the entire races. Houston edged Taylor in the two-mile with a time of 10:44 to 10:46.9.

Hickam took that event and the Steeler team of Mark Jones, Tim Dudley, John Kefalas and Kevin Buchanan followed with a time of 4:00 relay.

Steelers trim Kahoks

COLLINSVILLE — The grass at Fletcher Field won't have to be cut often if they play many more games like Wednesday's three-hour baseball battle between Collinsville and Granite City North.

Both teams ripped enough hits through the outfield grass to kill the dandelions and make pro scouts sit up and take notice. The Kahoks smacked nine hits — including five doubles and a triple — while the Steelers had five doubles among their 12 hits.

But the most important play of the game wasn't a booming hit — it was the ball that scoted underneath Collinsville catcher McEwen's legs in the top of the eighth, that allowed the winning run, North's Bob Batey, to slide home on the play to give the Steelers a 7-6 win and drop the Kahoks to 7-11 on the season. It was a frustrating afternoon for the Kahoks, who clawed their way back into the game twice only to be slapped back down again by North's booming bats. Oh, and Collinsville's sieve-like defense didn't help matters as five errors and North's aggressive base running allowed the entire Steeler team to dash happily around the base paths.

"I told the kids if we tighten up defensively and keep hitting the ball like we did (Wednesday) we can beat some teams," said Collinsville coach Russ Keene. "But our defense is still hurting us."

That was the case in the eighth after the Kahoks used some clutch hitting by Randy McEwen to tie the game 6-6 in the bottom of the seventh. North's Batey then stole second, one of three stolen bases for the Steelers.

When North's Mike Robertson stepped to the plate, he bounced one through the legs of reliever Barry Wilson on the mound. Collinsville second baseman Doug DesPain backed up the play and threw the runner out at first, but Batey was already at third.

He wasn't there long as he came in to score on Wilson's second pitch to Dick Awallt and the subsequent passed ball.

The party was over for the Kahoks, who couldn't put together another big comeback rally and managed just a lone single in the bottom of the inning.

That was a surprise to North coach Bob Stegmeyer, who watched as the Kahoks battled back from a 3-0 deficit to tie the game 6-6 in the bottom of the seventh. North's Batey then stole second, one of three stolen bases for the Steelers.

A tribute to a great guy

By PETE HAYES

GRANITE CITY — A tribute to a guy who has done a lot of things for Granite City. A well-deserved tribute. That's what took place in Edwardsville Monday night at Rusty's Restaurant when nearly 150 friends and fellow coaches and officials gathered to "roast" Andy Sullivan, who is retiring after this school year after over 20 years as a coach and teacher at Granite City High School South.

Andy was supposed to have been a surprise. And organizer Don Miller went to great lengths to see that it stayed as a surprise. But alas, ol' Andy couldn't be out-smarted for that long. He found out about it Monday when he picked up an extension phone at South to make a call and overheard somebody talking about it. But whether or not he was surprised, Sullivan was nonetheless moved by it all.

He sat and listened as speaker after speaker got up to tell all sorts of stories about him — many of which didn't have a thing to do with his life as a teacher and a coach.

Personally, I know how much truth comes from the mouths of many of the coaches who got up to "roast" Andy, so I took what they said with a grain of salt. But it was funny, true or not.

Sullivan, who coached in Arcola, Ill. and Mattoon before coming here, has just about everything that a teacher could be expected to do in his years in Granite City. He's been a head football coach, head basketball coach, football official, basketball official, sophomore coach, freshman coach, you name it, he's done it. But he's done it all with dignity. That's something people have come to expect from Andy.

Dignity and perfection were what he expected from his players. He usually got it, but he also got something else — their love and respect.

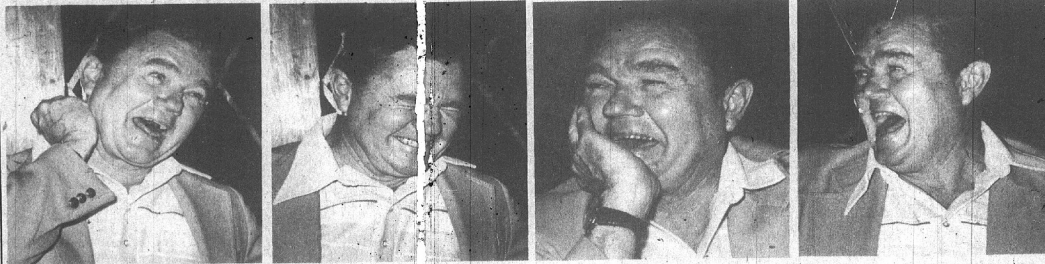

That was obvious when several members of Sullivan's last football team from Arcola, Ill. came to Monday's surprise. Remember now, that's over a five-hour drive to honor a man who coached you in high school over 25 years ago.

Sullivan laughed at the jokes, almost to the point of tears. But there was more to said than just jokes. It was said when so many people gathered to honor him.

Sullivan, 58, will be missed. He left his impression on countless young men in Granite City through the years. One of his football teams from old GCHS sat together and reminisced.

Coaches from all over the area, Alton's Wayne Williams, Dean Renn from Belleville, Frank Pitol from Collinsville, plus many more — let it be known that Andy Sullivan can't retire from coaching without somebody taking notice.

Our hats are off to you, Andy.

ANDY SULLIVAN shows the many expressions of laughter he used Monday night during speeches made by former players, as well as coaching colleagues and officials at a retirement "roast" for him at Rusty's Restaurant in Edwardsville. (Press-Record Photos by Pete Hayes)

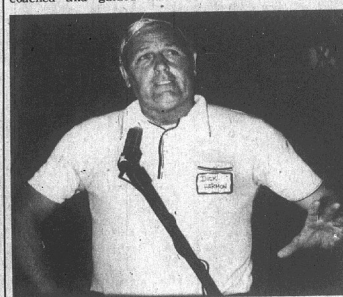

Goodbye, Andy, it's been fun.

EDWARDSVILLE — They had a little party here Monday night. About 150 people came. They came to honor Andy Sullivan, who coached and guided hundreds of young men at Granite City High School.

Sullivan came to Granite City in 1957. He has been the head football coach and the head basketball coach as well as just about everything else you can think of. His 1969 GCHS basketball team made it to the "Sweet Sixteen," before being eliminated in the East St. Louis Supersectional by a West Frankfort team led by a young man named Bryan Wilkinson.

Wilkinson is now the athletic director at Granite City High School North.

When Andy came to Granite City, there was only one high school, no North and no South. Now there are two. But Sullivan has made an impact on both high schools. Many of the men now coaching at North were once pupils of Andy Sullivan, either as students or as fellow teachers.

Face Australia here Friday

Yanks get ready for guests

GRANITE CITYAN JEFF DEMOTT PREPARES

GRANITE CITY — The Australians are coming to Granite City tomorrow. And the "Yanks" of the steel city are doing a lot of preparation for the visit.

The Australian National Championship team of age 16-and-under boys is making a tour of the United States this month and the St. Louis-Granite City area is among the stop-overs.

The Aussies will face a Southern Illinois State Select team Friday at 8 p.m. at Memorial Field on the campus of Granite City High School South. But there will be a lot of action surrounding the visitors before the game takes place.

The Australians will arrive in Granite City tomorrow around 11 a.m. and will be greeted at City Hall by Mayor Paul Schuler. From there, they will go to Granite City Steel, where they will be treated to lunch and a guided tour of the steel mill.

At 4 p.m., the Australians will go to the Granite City Township Hall where they, and all members of the Southern Illinois Select Teams will be the guests of honor at a dinner. Also at the dinner will be the mayors of Belleville, Alton, Cahokia and Edwardsville, along with Schuler, as well as John Somers, the president of the Illinois Youth Soccer Association. All will make special presentations to the visitors from Australia.

The trip from the Township Hall to the high school will be made in style. The Australians will be taken there on an old-fashioned fire truck, courtesy of Granite Cityan Bill Brandt.

The pre-game ceremonies will start at 7:30 p.m. at Memorial Field. The guests will be greeted by State Senator Sam Vadalabene, as well as county official Nelson Hagnauer and Mayor Schuler.

Finally, the game will take place... and it should be interesting. The Australians are not exactly what one could call push-overs. For instance, they beat Busch, one of St. Louis' best soccer teams, 6-0 Tuesday night.

The Aussies will stay the night in Granite City at the homes of players from the Southern Select Team, in order to get more of a flavor of life in the United States.

The foreign visitors will depart from Granite City around 9 a.m. Saturday and leave from Lambert Field in St. Louis about 11 a.m. for Connecticut... where they will continue their soccer tour of the United States.

Andy Gasparovic, the local organizer of the visit, said he is hoping for a large crowd at South Friday night... to show the guests from Australia how much a part of Granite City soccer really is.

Girls districts to begin this weekend

BLOOMINGTON — The 7th edition of the Illinois High School Association (IHSA) Girls State Track and Field Meet Series is just around the corner. Competitors from a record 654 schools will converge on 31 sites the weekend of May 11-12 for qualifying meets (either districts for non-Chicago Public League meet). Qualifiers from the 16 Class A and 14 Class AA districts, plus the Chicago Public League meet, advance to the State Final Meet the weekend of May 18-19 at O'Brien Stadium on the campus of Eastern Illinois University, Charleston.

Granite City North and South will take part in the Highland Class AA District Meet tomorrow (May 11) at 4 p.m. Other schools entered are: Alton, Belleville, Althoff, Belleville East, Belleville West, Cahokia, Collinsville, East St. Louis, Lincoln, East St. Louis Senior, Edwardsville, Highland, Mascoutah, O'Fallon, Triad and Wood River.

Madison will be entered in the girls Class A district meet at Red Bud Saturday (May 12), beginning at 11 a.m. Other schools entered are: Anna-Jonesboro, Breese Central, Breese Mater Del, Carverville, Chester, Christopher, Columbia, Dongola, Dupu, DuQuoin, Freeburg, Highland-St. Paul, Johnston City, Lebanon, Nashville, Pinkneyville, Red Bud, Sesser, Weschin, Waterloo, Gibault, Waterloo Senior, Woodlawn and Zeigler-Royalton.

East St. Louis Lincoln claimed Class AA team honors last spring with 37 points to out-distance runner-up Chicago Dunbar, which has 24. East St. Louis Sr. was third at 22 points. A total of 622 competitors from 178 Class AA schools advanced to the State Final Meet, and 47 schools scored points. East St. Louis Lincoln, led by defending 440-yard dash champion Jacqueline Joyner, a junior, is rated the pre-meet favorite, while Chicago Dunbar, led by defending 100-yard dash champion Desiree Pritchett, a senior, is rated as a potential successor.

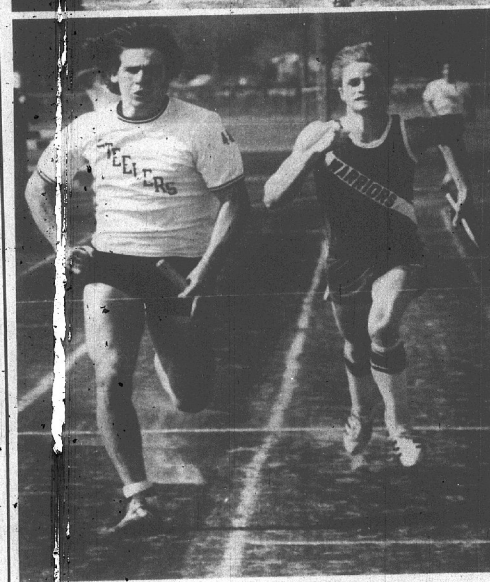

New Lenox-Providence captured the first Class A team title, but may be hard pressed to match its 31-point total, let alone repeat as the small school team champion. And St. Joseph-Ogden runner-up last spring with 16 points, may not be a factor this spring. Last year a total of 588 competitors from 194 schools advanced to the Class A State Final Meet, of which 49 scored points.

MITCHELL QUEEN Kathy Waldo (left) and attendant Raquel Cuevas, Waldo will reign over the annual Mitchell Athletic Club Parade next Saturday (May 12). The event is the kick-off to the club's summer baseball and softball season. Waldo, 17, is a junior at Granite City High School North. Her activities include girls' basketball, volleyball, Spanish club and science club. She is a member of the National Honor Society. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gayland Waldo of 520 Fleming. Cuevas, 16, is also a junior at GCHS North. She is active in band, modern music masters, Spanish and science clubs and volleyball. She is also a member of the National Honor Society. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Florentino Cuevas of 519 Fleming. Not pictured is attendant Pam Polach. She is active in girls' softball and soccer and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Polach of 3401 Village Lane.

TWO EXTREMES. Granite City South's Dave Houston (above right) and Dave Taylor run stride for stride yesterday against GC North in a familiar position for the two—in front. But at left, North's Kevin Buchanan beats out South's Dave Mahafey in the last leg of the 880 relay. Houston and Taylor finished one-two in the two mile, but it wasn't enough, as South dropped an 80-67 decision to North.

Special care of clothes exposed to a pesticide

By CATHERINE R. MAUCK
Madison County Extension
Adviser, Home Economics

Clothing worn by persons handling pesticides requires special attention. Pesticide application often deposits granulate dust and spray dirt on the applicators and their clothing. For this reason, applicators should protect themselves from these products as much as possible by wearing long-sleeved shirts, full-legged pants, and hats. Applicators also should try to keep their clothes clean and free from these products.

If pesticide concentrate is accidentally spilled on clothing, the wearer should remove the clothing immediately and take a shower.

Do not try to launder clothing contaminated by pesticide concentrate or by large quantities of dilute, highly toxic pesticide. It is recommended you destroy—preferably burn—these badly contaminated items. Clothing exposed to pesticide dust or spray should be removed and put into a plastic bag or directly into the washing machine. Never mix pesticide contaminated clothes with other family laundry.

By using ordinary laundry procedures for heavily soiled laundry, you can remove dust and spray.

Wash garments in hot (140 degrees F) water and a normal or full water level. Use heavy duty phosphate detergent. For heavily soiled garments, use more detergent than the amount the package directions indicates. Manufacturers base their recommendation on average washing conditions and moderate soil.

You may use other laundry products such as bleach and fabric softener if you wish. Then thoroughly dry the clothes in an automatic dryer at the regular fabric setting.

Remove any leftover pesticide from the washer by running the machine through a complete laundry cycle, use detergent, but do not place clothes in the machine for this cycle. The cleaned machine will then be safe for your regular laundry.

MILLIONAIRE CLUB membership of the State Farm Life Insurance Company is bested on four local agents. From the left are Tom Thebeau, Joe Hassler, Mike Toundas and Bill Frazier. To qualify, the four men placed at least $5 million of life insurance each during 1978 with their company.

'Millionaire Club' for insurance agents

Michael Toundas, Thomas Thebeau, William T. Frazier and Joseph P. Hassler have all earned membership in the Millionaire Club of State Farm Life Insurance Company.

To be honored with club membership, an agent must sell over $1 million in life insurance for the year 1978.

This is the seventh year for Toundas to be so honored, fourth year for Thebeau, second year for Frazier and first year for Hassler.

Toundas has been with State Farm Insurance for 24 years and is past president of the Granite City Evening Kiwanis and past lieutenant governor for Division 34 of Kiwanis International. He is a past president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and is a member of the Law and Order committee of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce.

Thebeau is currently president of the Parkview School PTA and is a member of the YMCA board of directors. An active member of the Granite City Rotary Club, Thebeau was voted 1978-79 "Boss of the Year" by the Tri-Cities Chapter, National Secretaries Association.

Frazier is a past president of the GC Rotary, Nameok PTA and Paddlers Swim Club. He is currently president of the St. John's Cemetery Board and is a member of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce.

Explorers sharpen marksmanship skills

Members of Explorer Post 10-4 spent the weekend at Camp Sunmen spending most of the daylight hours practicing firing .22 and .38 caliber pistols, in addition to 22 caliber rifles.

Friday and Saturday evenings the young men had night exercises in marksmanship and rescue in the Clark National Forest which surrounds the camp.

Due to the heavy rains in southern Missouri the Explorers found many creeks filled with water which were normally dry. Canoeing and fishing were also two of the chief activities of the Explorers.

After attending church in Potosi on Sunday morning the group returned to the Madison police station in the early afternoon.

The group met Wednesday evening at the Madison police station, where it studied traffic accident investigation under the direction of Officer William Weidner, post adviser.

Big volume of Mother's Day calls being predicted

While thousands of moms will be getting special long distance calls on Mother's Day (May 13), hundreds of other moms will be helping to make it happen. Some will spend the day at the long distance network operations center in Chicago, helping guide the immense flow of calls throughout the country and overseas. They will use computerized equipment to route calls over alternate circuits to avoid traffic jams.

All will be among the extra employees scheduled for duty Sunday by Illinois Bell and American Telephone & Telegraph's Long Lines department to assist with the heavy Mother's Day calling. AT&T Long Lines expects it will handle about 3.85 million long distance calls through its Illinois switching centers Sunday.

An estimated 16.9 million interstate calls will be processed over the nationwide long distance network on Mother's Day. The figures do not include the millions of local calls to mom on her day.

Gene Johnson, Illinois Bell's toll general manager, said 1,315 operators — many of them mothers — will be busy assisting callers with an estimated 500,000 calls on Sunday. In the Chicago metropolitan area, 844 operators will handle about 310,000 calls, even though most people will be dialing direct.

Les Carter, network operations manager for AT&T Long Lines in Chicago, said 16 to 18 employees — compared with two on an average Sunday — will spend Mother's Day in the network operations center at 10 S. Canal St.

Carter said the job of managing telephone traffic is more complicated on Mother's Day because calling patterns change on holidays. On a normal business day, long distance calling is heaviest between big cities. But on Mother's Day, more people call to and from suburbs, small towns and rural areas.

"We have plenty of circuits between Chicago and New York," Carter said, "but we may have to route calls halfway across the country to get them from Tinley Park to Tallahassee, Fla., without delays."

Since most people will be talking longer than usual, some calls may not go through on the first attempt. If that happens, Bell advises waiting a few minutes before trying again. It's a good idea to call in mid-afternoon when the volume of calls is lighter, a spokesman said.

Callers who want to save time and money may dial their own calls and place them during one of the less busy periods: all day morning, or Sunday afternoon before 5.

Customers who dial their own interstate calls any time Saturday or before 5 p.m. Sunday will take advantage of night and weekend rates that are 80 percent lower than daytime rates.

Interstate evening rates, 35 percent lower than day rates, apply from 5 p.m. to 11 p.m. Sunday. Rates for long distance calls within Illinois are also lower during these periods.

Johnson pointed out that callers can use time zones to their advantage. "The night and weekend rate is in effect everywhere in the country from 11 p.m. to 8 a.m.," he said.

This means that someone dialing a call just after 11 p.m. in Illinois, with the lowest rates in effect, can reach someone in California, where it's only 9 p.m."

In the opposite direction, Johnson said, Illinois callers can dial a belated Mother's Day call to the East Coast before 8 a.m. Monday — when rates go up — and reach mom at 9 a.m. Eastern time.

Cindy Says

BY CINDY ADAMS

Henry Winkler's crash course in sign language has progressed to graduate work. Passionately involved in helping youngsters, he is zealous in his desire to communicate with the deaf child ... Sophia Loren admitted that she is "still insecure because, after all, Carlo Ponti could suddenly have an affair with someone else and everything could be over and that worries me." Listen, if you believe that I have a couple of acres of swampland in Jersey I'd like to unload on you.

Jim Nabors is buying a private plane to ferry him between his Honolulu mansion and his new 500-acre macadamia nut ranch in Maui. I mean, I don't have such problems, believe me ... Olivia DeHavilland took a residence on the Queen Mary which is docked in Long Beach, Calif. She has two rooms and commutes to Hollywood. To tell you the truth, I don't understand this lifestyle any more than I understand Jim Nabors'.

Suzanne Pleshette bought a condominium in Florida. This I understand ... Film producer Michael Viner and the missus, Deborah Raffin, were in New York. He said a recent showing of his new film, "Willie," dragged out Judge John Sirica plus former Attorney General John Mitchell who is only recently released from the can where he was sent by Sirica, his seatmate.

Joey Travolta denies a feud with brother John but does admit he can "outthink" his brother, which doesn't really seem to be one of the really heavy accomplishments of the world, right? ... Hey, that good life is breaking up that old gang of mine: Bob Hope's wife nursing a busted limb. Morey Amsterdam, now feeling fine, keeled over a bit ago and his quick-thinking son brought him around. And word from Palm Springs has Magda Gabor feeling a wee poorly.

Kristy McNichol thinks she looks like Jane Fonda or will in a couple of decades.

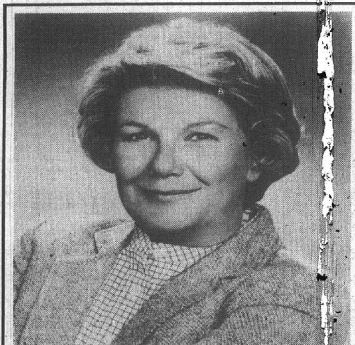

A burp from Cheryl Ladd: "I worry about my breath. Every time I see a mouthwash commercial I break out in a cold sweat." And another Cheryl Ladd quote to columnist Kay Gardella, when asked how does she stand up to being an actress, singer, sex symbol: "I sleep every chance I get." That giggling sure takes alot out of you.

Dolly Parton: "I'm five feet tall but in my high heels and my wig I'm 6-foot-4 ... Bette Midler: "For me to ever do a nude scene they'd have to give me half the state of California."

Barry Manilow's reversing the trend. He burlied as how he'd never leave New York, and he just moved to California ... Barbara Walters may elect to cut down a little on work. She's done it, she's had it, she's seen it, she's proved it. She's getting a little tired.

I have to rave the Copacabana where Robin Williams did whatever Orkans do. He packed the place. Everybody adored his offbeat, oddball blue humor. I didn't understand much of it but, then, I still like the Neanderthal humor of the Beatles and Hopes ... Fred Williamson swiveled into Muhammad Ali's cocktail party at the Cotton Club in a shirt open to his navel and pants so tight they'd have to wear out from the inside. He and Raquel Welch must have the same tailor.

"Chaplin," the musical supposedly based on Charlie's life and supposedly written by Burt Bacharach and supposedly starring Anthony Newley is supposedly being shelved. Bacharach and Newley are supposedly just too busy.

Barbara Bel Geddes stars as Ellie Ewing, married to the head of a powerful Texas family, on "Dallas," a contemporary dramatic series broadcast Fridays, on CBS.

TV Tattle

By PEPPER O'BRIEN

Confidence in TV is announcing your fall schedule in the spring, which is what ABC has just done. Batting .800 in hits for 1978-79, the network will be introducing only six new series next year.

The old making way for the new include "Battlerstar Galactica," the overpriced junk heap that ABC couldn't force down the public's throat. Likewise such movie rip-offs as "Delta House" and "Makin' It," which proved that big screen success is not as easily transferred to the small screen as TV programmers would hope.

Former favorites as "Starsky & Hutch" and "Welcome Back, Kotter" have also run out of steam to the regret of none of the involved parties. And finally, "What's Happening!!" will be happening no longer, despite decent ratings.

The new programs, with time period (EST) and day in parentheses are:

"The Associates" (8:30-9, Sundays) — Like "The Paper Chase," CBS's struggling law school series, "The Associates" is based on a John Jay Osborne novel, in which the struggling law students become struggling lawyers at a New York firm. The difference is ABC's is a comedy, produced by the team that brought you "Taxi." In fact, this sounds like "Taxi" with ties and jackets.

"240-Robert" (8:00, Mondays) — Once again the California coast becomes the scene of peril and rescue in one of TV's favorite plots. This is the first, though, to get the seal of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department. Goshi John Bennett Perry, Mark Harmon and Joanna Cassidy provide the sun-kissed complexions and derring-do.

"Hart in San Francisco"

(8:30, Tuesdays) — A comedy vehicle for the talented British character actor, Ron Moody. He plays an eccentric Scottish hard detective who finds himself sleuthing in San Francisco thanks to an exchange program. Also starring are Cassie Yates and Michael Durrell. It's "McCloud" with an English accent.

"The Lazarus Syndrome" (10-11, Tuesdays) — Viewers got a preview of this well-meaning medical drama in a movie earlier this year. Louis Gossett, Jr. is a heart surgeon who teams with one of his patients, a newspaperman played by Ronald Hunter, in running a hospital. The catchword here is "heart," as in soft-hearted, bleeding heart, heart of gold, etc. etc. with William Bilton ("Ben's Song") behind the script this might be hearty.

"Benson" (9:30-9, Thursdays) — Well, the titler finally did it. He wrote it out and got his own show. Robert Guillaume of "Soap" sets up shop in the home of a naive geonorm and becomes the brains behind the scene. What will the Tates do without him?

"Hart to Hart" (10-11, Saturdays) — Two preening hands at sophisticated comedy, Robert Wagner and Stephanie Powers, play a wealthy businessman and his author wife in this romantic comedy-drama. Not content to lie about the mansion watching the silver shine, they play private eye for kicks. It's not "The Thin Man," but then what is these days?

A final note: considering "Hart in San Francisco" and "Hart to Hart," there's going to have to be some name change at ABC before all this takes it to your living room.

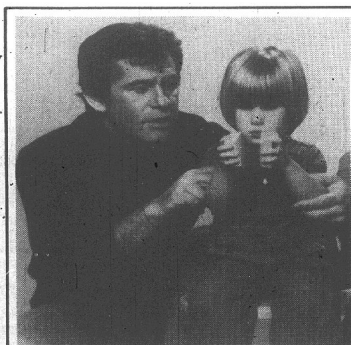

After a hard day's filming, there's nothing more relaxing than a good meal at a fine restaurant for Sam the chimp, who co-stars as Bear in "BJ and the Bear," Saturdays, on NBC.

Saturday

Bette Davis stars as an embittered widow who, after 20 years, is reunited with her daughter (Gena Rowlands), in the movie "Strangers: The Story of a Mother and Daughter," Sunday, May 13 on CBS.

Sunday

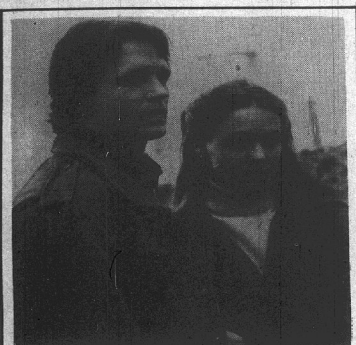

Young Raun Kaufman (Michael Adams) is helped by his father (James Farentino) to make contact with the real world in the true story, "Son-Rise: A Miracle of Love," Monday, May 14 on NBC.

Monday

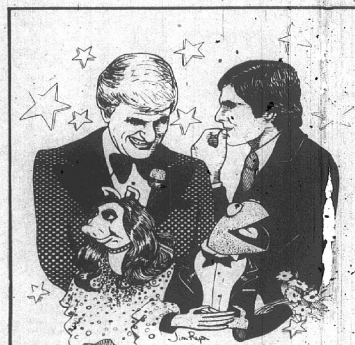

Gilbert Roland is an early settler of the New Mexico territory engaged in a land battle with Anglos, and Ana Alicia plays his daughter, in Part II of "The Muppets Go Hollywood," Wednesday, May 16 on NBC.

Wednesday

A young father of two (Tom Mason) must cope with the fatal illness of his wife (Bess Armstrong), which also threatens their unborn child, in "Walking Through the Fire," Tuesday, May 15 on CBS.

Tuesday

Dick Van Dyke (left) and Christopher "Superman" Reeve are two of the human guests who will join Miss Piggy and Kermit the Frog in "The Muppets Go Hollywood," Wednesday, May 16 on CBS.

Granite City Opticians receive consumer award

Granite City Opticians, 12 Nameoki Village, is one of seven firms in the St. Louis area to receive the Leonor K. Sullivan Consumer's Award.

The award is presented by the Better Business Bureau. Recipients are nominated by consumers and are judged on specific examples of outstanding service performed by the companies.

The local firm was nominated by Mrs. Diane Gebhardt, of Granite City, who teaches consumer education in Edwardsville.

The store employs two full time certified opticians—Jim Gruchala and Roy McCoy, the manager, in addition to Mrs. Roy McCoy, who works part time as a secretary and general assistant.

Mrs. Gebhardt's nominating letter stressed that Granite City Opticians is concerned with "consumers' satisfaction, and not just selling eyeglasses."

CC Opticians has been in the city for nearly nine years.

The award was presented at a reception held at the Old Court House in St. Louis.

Clarence C. Barksdale, board chairman of National Bank in St. Louis, was the award chairman.

Workshop on stress

The Collinsville Counseling Center and International Rational Stress Institute will offer a rational stress training workshop June 8 from 6 to 10 p.m. and June 9 from 9 a.m. through 1 p.m. The workshop will focus on two separate methods for controlling tension that results from the stress experienced in modern life.

Dr. Carl A. Hermansmeier, clinical psychologist and director of the center, will conduct the workshop. He created a rational stress training four years ago and has taught courses at Metropolitan College and McKendree College. He has led a seminar at St. Joseph's College in Hartford, Conn., as well as conducting sessions for business executives.

The workshop will focus on both insight into patterns of thinking which hinder potential happiness, and learning "relaxation skills for monitoring ourselves physically." Self-hypnosis, progressive relaxation and autogenic training are some of the methods which will be taught.

The workshop will be held at the Counseling Center (344-5094), located at 2105 Vandallia, Collinsville, and is open to the public. Advance registration is required.

Arrest three behind store

Robert G. Mathias, 29, of 3156 Rodger Ave., was charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor and illegal transportation of liquor and two passengers in the car were charged with illegal possession of liquor after police checked Mathias' auto behind Central Hardware in Crossroads Plaza Shopping Center Monday.

Officers said they watched a car drive behind the stores in the shopping center and then turn off its headlights.

Suspicious about the activity, police continued watching the car until it stopped behind Central Hardware and then approached, allegedly finding beer and two marijuana pipes in the auto.

Passengers arrested were Richard A. Kostoff, 17, of 2702 Center St., and Lorrie L. Irmen, 18, of 3156 Jill Ave.

Gospel singing at Bethesda

In observance of Mother's Day, a special gospel music program will be presented Sunday evening at 7:30 at Bethesda Temple, 22nd and State streets.

Gary Butcher and the United Evangelistic Team will appear at the local church, according to the pastor, the Rev. Charles Browning, who said the public is invited to attend.

"Everyone is invited to hear the gospel singing group and to bring along their mother in celebration of her day," the minister said.

Butcher and his wife, Rebecca, have traveled for the past six years through many states, appearing in concerts, at youth rallies, church services and evangelistic programs.

The Butchers and their group, United, have been based in Peoria for the past six years.

"Gary shares his story of being wounded in Vietnam and how God saved his life," Rev. Browning said.

Children's Day at church

Jesus was also a child

In celebration of the International Year of the Child, Sunday was Children's Day at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church. The youngsters of the church, from nursery through the junior high Sunday school classes, conducted services, bringing the king of joy that only children can give.

As the organist played "Jesus Loves the Little Children," the procession of youngsters, led by the very youngest, made their way to the front of the church. Parents and grandparents watched as the children entered the front pews.

The little ones were to open the services. They filed up to the microphone and gave words to the procession song. The fifth and sixth graders were next. They sang "Everything is Beautiful," after which Donnie Hemphill told the congregation that 1979 had been declared as the International Year of the Child.

He said that throughout the year each country will honor, in special ways, its own children. He said it will be a time to be particularly concerned for all of the world's children.

The congregation joined in as The Rights of the Child were read, followed by a poem read by Paula Bills. The children led the affirmation of faith, prayer of confession, words of assurance and The Lord's Prayer.

The entire service was done by the children last Sunday morning. Their reward for a job well done was hot dogs, potato chips, and drinks, served after the service.

The entire undertaking was coordinated by Mrs. Shirley Baker, whose son Tim designed the program for the special day.

Helping Mrs. Baker were Mrs. Mary Hemphill and all of the Sunday school teachers.

According to Mrs. Baker, all of the children did a good job and had a lot of fun doing what they normally only watch others do.

And somehow it did not seem unusual for children to be leading the adults in a house of prayer. After all, Jesus was also a child.

Schools changing to metric system

Think metric. This is the theme school districts across the state are using the week of May 7-11 to celebrate Illinois Metric Week.

The importance of teaching the metric system will be stressed.

"Metric measurement is an idea whose time has come," noted State Superintendent Joseph Cronin in launching the week. "The system is easier to teach and easier to use. Ninety-eight percent of the nations of the world use the metric system of measurement. Changing over makes sense."

The U.S. Department of Commerce and National Bureau of Standards have set 1985 as the target date for the country to make a full changeover to metrics. The State Board has established 1980 as the date for all school districts in Illinois to be using the metric system as the primary language of measurement. At that time, the board will require that all textbook materials — considered for adoption by a school district in Illinois that include information on measurement — must identify the basic metric units and offer activities in their use.

Metric Week is one of several events planned during May by the State Board of Education as part of "Project: Skills." Purpose of the project is to emphasize teaching "the basics" as the foundation for future learning.

Port bidding on docks and roads

The Tri-City Regional Port District will open bids at 4 p.m. Friday on mooring facilities and on roadway improvements for the year. Road work is to include sealing and resealing roadways and other areas. Bids for mooring facilities are to include installation, materials and equipment necessary to install three mooring docks at the local port.

Contracts will be awarded by the port board after the bids have been reviewed and evaluated.

ARREST NEAR NORTH

Tim Stafford, 20, of 2720 Angela Drive, was charged with driving on a suspended driver's license after police stopped his car on Maryville Road near Granite City High School North last week. Detective Sgt. Don Knight alleged seeing the car going at high speed around the curve and stopped the car. A warrant also was served on Stafford alleging failure to appear in court on another charge.

What you should know about air conditioning

Some manufacturers of heating and cooling equipment have begun to use aluminum tubing in their heat pump and central air conditioning coils. Now aluminum is great for some things, like beverage cans, lawn chairs, etc. But coil tubing isn't one of them.

Lennox uses only dependable, proven copper tubing. Copper costs a little more, but the advantages are well worth it. Copper is easier to work with, less brittle, more flexible, easier to make tight joints with.

Lennox enjoys a high quality reputation unsurpassed in the heating and air conditioning industry. We didn't get it by skimping on materials. It's just one more reason to see your independent Lennox dealer for all your heating and air conditioning needs. Call
